

Clinical Trials in Asia Summit 2009

Determining the prospective strategies for Implementing Clinical trials in India & South Asia - Today's Hottest Market

18th - 20th February 2009, New Delhi, India

Clinical Trials Summit 2009 will discuss the on-going pressing concerns faced in clinical trials operations, addressing the risks, timeline and budget constraint, whilst effectively tackling key challenges in overcoming trials agreement and site contract negotiation hurdles.

Who should attend?

From pharmaceutical, biotech and CRO's: Directors and Heads of:

- Clinical Research & Development
- Clinical Research Services
- Clinical Operations
- Clinical Data Management
- Clinical IT
- Clinical Trials
- Medical Affairs
- Regulatory Affairs
- Compliance
- Quality Control/Assurance/GCP
- Clinical Study Design
- Safety Surveillance
- Subject Recruitment
- E-Clinical Systems

Key Speakers

- Chandrashekar Potkar, Director, Medical and Regulatory Affairs, Pfizer, India
- Viraj Rajadhyaksha, Senior Manager, Operations, Planning & Mgmt Clinical Research, Pfizer, India
- Rajesh Karan, Regional Head of Translational Medicine & Scientific Operations, Novartis, India
- Anirban Roy Chowdhury, Clinical Research Manager, AstraZeneca, India
- Mark Engel, Chairman, Excel PharmaStudies
- Celestine Juliet, Project Manager, Cipla
- Krathish Bopanna, Senior Vice President, Acunova
- Nermeen Varawalla, Vice President, Scientific & Medical Affairs, PRA International
- Paula Mumby, Director, i3 Pharma Resourcing
- Dan Zhang, CEO, Fountain Medical Development.
- Dalvin Ni, VP, Fountain Medical Development.
- Milind Antani, Head-Pharma LifeSciences group, Nishith Desai
- Arani Chatterjee, Vice President, Clinical Research Panacea Biotec
- Anil Jain, Assistant General Manager, Clinical Research, Panacea Biotec

To Register Visit: www.visiongain.com or Call: 044 - 2073366100